

Your Senior Year in High School is one of those magical times in life. Todd Petrik Photography captures the magic for you to remember for a life time. Every one of your products comes to you with high quality pearl paper and durable finishes. Your canvas is finished and ready to hang.

Graduation announcements are presented with Parchment envelopes. Each one of these products is ready to share your story and is produced with quality to be around to share that story in years to come.

The packages below are a starting point. There are many other options and products available. When we sit down with you during your "Proofing" Session, by all means, let's discuss what is important to you.

Graduation Announcements Cards

Don't get caught short. Announcements need to be ordered 2 months in advance to ensure they arrive in time for you to get them mailed.

Each card includes photos from your session and custom text to tell the story you want. This text can be for the graduation ceremony, celebration or both.

There are Several Templates and Themes to choose from. We sit down with you and custom design all aspects of these announcements

Cards come with either White or Parchment Envelopes
